

EXL Named as 2020 Cummins COVID-19 Outstanding Supplier

October 28, 2020

NEW YORK, Oct. 28, 2020 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EXL [NASDAQ: EXLS], a leading operations management and analytics company, today announced that it has been recognized by Cummins Inc. [NYSE: CMI] as a 2020 Cummins COVID-19 Outstanding Supplier.

"We at Cummins would like to recognize EXL for demonstrating innovation and delivering superior results to ensure continuity of supplier freight pay services during the COVID-19 pandemic," said Denis Ford, International Sourcing Leader for EMEA, Cummins. "We appreciate the hard work and dedication given when we needed it the most."

The COVID-19 Outstanding Supplier Program was created by Cummins to recognize its partners who stepped up to support Cummins and its customers during this volatile time. Out of 25,000 suppliers, only 18 were chosen to receive this recognition.

"We are pleased to be named a 2020 Cummins COVID-19 Outstanding Supplier," said Narasimha Kini, Senior Vice President and Head of the Emerging Businesses. "Our goal in this period of increased disruption has been to help businesses develop a sustainable approach to resiliency without sacrificing profitability. This award validates our approach to a strategic partnership with Cummins."
