The Everest Group report highlights EXL's comprehensive portfolio of healthcare analytics solutions and platforms, including the EXL Data Management platform, EXLVantage™, and EXLClarity™ solutions. "In recent years, data-driven decision making has become the backbone of healthcare enterprises' growth strategy. "EXL's large portfolio of solutions and platforms for healthcare analytics such as EXL Data Management and EXLClarity™ have helped it to drive value for enterprises. EXL's strong partnership with hyperscalers and enterprise platform vendors and its focus on maintaining strong client relationships have enabled it to be positioned as a Leader in Everest Group's Healthcare Analytics Services PEAK Matrix® Assessment 2022."

The report analyzed 25 leading healthcare analytics services providers using Everest Group's PEAK Matrix®, a proprietary framework that measures an organization's impact created within the market and the ability to deliver solutions successfully.
