EmblemHealth Selects EXL Healthcare's CareRadius(R) Population Health Suite

NEW YORK, Aug. 6, 2015 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EXL (NASDAQ:EXLS), a leading business process solutions company, today announced that EmblemHealth Inc., the New York-based health insurer and wellness company, has selected EXL's population health suite CareRadius®. Serving nearly 3.4 million members, EmblemHealth will upgrade to CareRadius® from EXL's Healthcare's legacy platform maxMC.

"EmblemHealth is committed to providing our members with the tools and resources they need to stay healthy, get well and live better," said Dr. Munish Khaneja, Vice President, Medical Management and Pharmacy Operations, EmblemHealth. "Our long-standing relationship with EXL is another example of how EmblemHealth works with its business partners to leverage data for better care coordination and improved health outcomes."

The patent pending CareRadius® integrates real-time data from multiple sources for insurers and practitioners to enhance clinical decision-making, improve workflows, and reduce administrative costs. Recent feature additions include a foundation framework for embedding analytics into clinical operations and enhanced dual-eligible member support.

"In our business, technology is important to the degree it helps us improve member health," said Robert Branchini, Vice President of IT, EmblemHealth. "CareRadius® is a flexible platform that allows us to streamline and improve our outreach today and position ourselves to address the needs of tomorrow."

"We are excited to continue our relationship with EmblemHealth," said Rembert de Villa, Executive Vice President and Business Head of EXL Healthcare. "Technology like CareRadius® is at the foundation of our mission to help our clients better manage their total population health, as well as improve the health of the individual."

Scott McFarland, Senior Vice President and General Manager of EXL Healthcare's Population Health Solutions (formerly EXL Landa), added, "EXL Healthcare is pleased to continue to support EmblemHealth's ongoing pursuit of industry leading collaborative care management and wellness. Extending our relationship to include our flagship CareRadius® suite will allow us to achieve our common goals of healthier members and better care quality."
