NOTES TO UNAUDITED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
September 30, 2026
(In thousands, except per share amount and share count)

1. Organization

ExlService Holdings, Inc. (“ExlService Holdings”) is organized as a corporation under the laws of the State of Delaware. ExlService Holdings, together with its subsidiaries and affiliates (collectively, the “Company”), is a global data and artificial intelligence (“AI”) company that offers services and solutions to reinvent client business models, drive better outcomes and unlock growth with speed. The Company harnesses the power of data, AI, and deep industry knowledge to transform businesses, including the world’s leading corporations in industries including insurance, healthcare and life sciences, banking and capital markets, retail, communications and media, and energy and infrastructure, among others.

The Company’s clients are located principally in the United States of America (“U.S.”) and the United Kingdom (“U.K.”).

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(a) Basis of Preparation and Principles of Consolidation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with United States generally accepted accounting principles (“U.S. GAAP”) for interim financial information, the instructions to Form 10-Q and Article 10 of Regulation S-X. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by U.S. GAAP for annual financial statements and therefore should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2025.

The unaudited consolidated financial statements reflect all adjustments (of a normal and recurring nature) that management considers necessary for a fair presentation of such statements for the interim periods presented. The unaudited consolidated statements of income for the interim periods presented are not necessarily indicative of the results for the full year or for any subsequent period.

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include the financial statements of ExlService Holdings and all of its subsidiaries. The standalone financial statements of subsidiaries are fully consolidated on a line-by-line basis. All intercompany balances and transactions are eliminated in consolidation. The Company’s investments in equity affiliates are recorded using equity method of accounting.

(b) Use of Estimates

The preparation of the unaudited consolidated financial statements in conformity with U.S. GAAP requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities included in the unaudited consolidated financial statements. Although these estimates are based on management’s best assessment of the current business environment, actual results may be different from those estimates. The significant estimates that affect the unaudited consolidated financial statements include, but are not limited to, estimates of the fair value of the identifiable intangible assets and contingent consideration, purchase price allocation, including revenue projections and the discount rate applied within the discounted cash flow model for business acquisitions, credit risk of customers, the nature and timing of the satisfaction of performance obligations, the standalone selling price of performance obligations, variable consideration in a customer contract, expected recoverability from customers with contingent fee arrangements, estimated costs to complete fixed price contracts, assets and obligations related to employee benefit plans, deferred tax valuation allowances, income-tax uncertainties and other contingencies, valuation of derivative financial instruments and stock-based awards, and useful life of long-lived assets and other intangible assets. The significant assumptions underneath these estimates include, but are not limited to assumptions to calculate stock-based compensation expense, determine pattern of generation of economic benefits to calculate depreciation and amortization for long-lived assets and other intangible assets, and recoverability of long-lived assets, goodwill and other intangible assets.

(c) Recent Accounting Pronouncements

In November 2024, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued Accounting Standards Update (“ASU”) No. 2024-03, Income Statement - Reporting Comprehensive Income (“ASC Topic 220”): Expense Disaggregation Disclosures. This ASU improves disclosures relating to the disaggregation of income statement expenses, requires additional disclosures about the nature of expenses in commonly presented financial statement captions on an annual and interim basis for all public business entities. The ASU will be effective for annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2026, and interim periods within annual reporting periods beginning after December 15, 2027, with early adoption permitted. The Company is currently evaluating the impact of this ASU on its consolidated financial statements.

Deferred consideration		15,000
Total purchase consideration	$	229,879

Contingent consideration and deferred consideration are presented under “Accrued expenses and other current liabilities” and “Other non-current liabilities,” as applicable, in the consolidated balance sheets, and are initially classified as non-cash investing activities under ASC Topic 230, Statement of Cash Flows.

The fair value of assets acquired and liabilities assumed from the acquisition of iMerit is based on a preliminary valuation and, as such, the Company's estimates and assumptions are subject to change within the measurement period. The Company is in the process of finalizing the adjustments related to debt, working capital position, tax and other post-closing adjustments, which, when determined, may result in the recognition of additional assets or liabilities as of the acquisition date, and shall, accordingly, lead to the finalization of the purchase consideration. The measurement period will not exceed one year from the acquisition date.

The Company’s preliminary purchase price allocation to net tangible and intangible assets of iMerit as of July 31, 2026 is as follows:

Cash and cash equivalents	$	8,756
Accounts receivable, net		9,306
Intangible assets, net
Customer-related intangibles		60,100
Developed technology		13,300
Trade names and trademarks		2,700
Other assets ⁽¹⁾		18,417
Accrued expenses and other current liabilities		(17,786)
Deferred tax liabilities, net		(10,965)
Other liabilities ⁽²⁾		(17,050)
Goodwill		163,101
Total purchase consideration	$	229,879

(1) Includes property and equipment, net, operating lease right-of-use assets, other current assets, and other assets.

(2) Includes accounts payable, current and non-current portion of operating lease liabilities, and other non-current liabilities.

The fair value of customer-related intangible assets was determined using the multi-period excess earnings method, while the fair value of developed technology was determined using the replacement cost method. These intangible assets are amortized on a straight-line basis, which approximates the economic pattern of benefits, over the estimated weighted average useful lives of 7 years for customer-related intangible assets and 3 years for developed technology assets.

As of the acquisition date, the Company recognized an indemnification asset of $12,069 related to potential pre-closing income tax and indirect tax obligations, including estimated interest and penalties, as covered under the terms of the Purchase Agreement. The indemnification asset is presented under “Other assets” and the $12,069 related tax obligations under "Other non-current liabilities" in the consolidated balance sheets.

The goodwill recognized represents the acquired capabilities, operating synergies and other benefits expected to result from combining the acquired operations with the Company’s existing operations. Goodwill is not deductible for income tax purposes. In connection with the acquisition, goodwill has been allocated to the Company’s Healthcare and Life Sciences, Banking, Capital Markets and Diversified Industries, and International Growth Markets reportable segments based on the Company’s assessment of the nature of services rendered by iMerit and allocated to each segment using a relative fair value method.

Acquisition-related costs are expensed as incurred and are included in “General and administrative expenses” in the unaudited consolidated statements of income. The Company recognized acquisition-related costs of $869 and $2,763 during the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026, respectively.

The results of operations of the acquired business and the fair value of the acquired assets and assumed liabilities are included in the Company’s unaudited consolidated financial statements with effect from the date of the acquisition. The acquisition did not materially impact the Company's financial position, results of operations or cash flows, and therefore, the Company has not provided unaudited supplemental pro forma results.

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, the Company performed an assessment to determine whether events or circumstances exist that may lead to a determination that it is more likely than not that the fair value of a reporting unit is less than its carrying amount. Based on such assessment, the Company concluded that there was no impairment on goodwill as of September 30, 2026 and 2025.

(2) Contingent consideration is presented under “Accrued expenses and other current liabilities” and “Other non-current liabilities,” as applicable, in the consolidated balance sheets.

Fair Value of Derivative Financial Instruments:

Fair values for derivative financial instruments are based on independent sources including highly rated financial institutions and are classified as Level 2. Refer to Note 17 - Derivatives and Hedge Accounting to the unaudited consolidated financial statements for further details.

Fair Value of Contingent Consideration:

The fair value measurement of contingent consideration is determined using Level 3 inputs. The Company’s contingent consideration represents a component of the total purchase consideration for business acquisitions. The measurement is calculated using unobservable inputs based on the Company’s own assessment of achievement of certain performance goals. The Company estimated the fair value of the contingent consideration based on the Monte Carlo simulation model.

The following table summarizes the changes in the fair value of contingent consideration:

	Three months ended September 30,		Nine months ended September 30,
	2026	2025	2026	2025
Opening balance	$ 8,000	$ 2,700	$ 5,000	$ 2,700

During the three and nine months ended September 30, 2026 and 2025, there were no transfers among Level 1, Level 2 and Level 3.

Financial Instruments Not Carried at Fair Value:

The Company’s other financial instruments not carried at fair value consist primarily of cash and cash equivalents (except investments in money market funds, as disclosed above), short-term investments (except investments in mutual funds, as disclosed above), restricted cash, accounts receivable, net, long-term investments, accrued capital expenditures, accrued expenses, client liabilities and interest payable on borrowings for which fair values approximate their carrying amounts. The carrying value of the Company's outstanding revolving credit facility and term loan facility approximates its fair value because the Company's interest rate yield is near current market rates for comparable debt instruments.

17. Derivatives and Hedge Accounting

The Company uses derivative instruments to mitigate cash flow volatility from risk of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates and interest rates. The Company enters into foreign currency forward contracts to hedge cash flow risks from forecasted revenues and other transactions denominated in certain foreign currencies. These contracts qualify as cash flow hedges under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging, and are with counterparties that are highly rated financial institutions.

The following table sets forth the aggregate notional amount of derivatives in cash flow hedging relationship:

	As of
	September 30, 2026	December 31, 2025
Foreign currency forward contracts denominated in:
Sell U.S. dollar (USD)	886,900	1,134,800
Buy U.S. dollar (USD)	10,990	12,075

The Company estimates that approximately $30,660 of derivative loss, net, excluding tax effects, included in AOCI, representing changes in the value of cash flow hedges based on exchange rates prevailing as of September 30, 2026, could be reclassified into earnings within the next twelve months. As of September 30, 2026, the maximum outstanding term of the cash flow hedges was approximately 33 months.

The Company also enters into foreign currency forward contracts to hedge its intercompany balances and other monetary assets and liabilities denominated in currencies other than functional currencies, against the risk of fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates associated with remeasurement of such assets and liabilities to functional currency. These foreign currency forward contracts do not qualify as fair value hedges under ASC Topic 815, Derivatives and Hedging. Changes in the fair value of these financial instruments are recognized in the unaudited consolidated statements of income and are included in the foreign exchange gain/(loss), net line item.

The following table sets forth the aggregate notional principal amounts of outstanding foreign currency forward contracts for derivatives not designated as hedging instruments:

Unamortized debt issuance costs for the Company's revolving credit facility of $2,317 and $507 as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively, are presented under "Other current assets" and "Other assets," as applicable in the consolidated balance sheets.

Credit Agreement

On August 18, 2026, the Company entered into a Revolving Credit and Term Loan Credit Agreement (the "2026 Credit Agreement") with certain lenders and PNC Bank, National Association, as administrative agent. The 2026 Credit Agreement provides for (i) a $600,000 revolving credit facility (the "Revolving Credit Facility"), and (ii) a $400,000 term loan facility (the "Term Loan Facility," and together with the Revolving Credit Facility, the "Credit Facilities"). Each of the Credit Facilities matures on August 18, 2031.

Subject to specified approvals and conditions, the 2026 Credit Agreement permits the Company to increase the aggregate revolving commitments and/or obtain incremental term loans, in an aggregate amount not to exceed the greater of $470,000 and 100% of the Company's EBITDA, less prior increases, plus additional amounts subject to compliance with certain leverage requirements.

Borrowings under the 2026 Credit Agreement bear interest, at the Company's option, at (a) Term SOFR plus an applicable margin ranging from 1.00% to 1.75% per annum, (b) Daily Simple SOFR plus an applicable margin ranging from 1.00% to 1.75% per annum, or (c) the Alternate Base Rate plus an applicable margin ranging from 0.00% to 0.75% per annum. In each case, the applicable margin is determined based on the Company's total net leverage ratio. The Company is also required to pay a commitment fee ranging from 0.125% to 0.25% per annum on the unused portion of the Revolving Credit Facility, based on the Company's total net leverage ratio.

The Company used proceeds from the Credit Facilities to repay all outstanding obligations under its First Amendment to Amended and Restated Credit Agreement entered into in August 2024 (the "2024 Credit Agreement") with Citibank, N.A., in an aggregate principal amount and accrued interest of $532,678. The 2024 Credit Agreement was terminated, and no early termination penalties or prepayment fees were paid in connection with the termination. The maximum total net leverage ratio may be increased to 4.00 to 1.00 for four consecutive fiscal quarters following certain qualifying material acquisitions. The 2026 Credit Agreement also contains customary events of default.

The Company is currently involved in transfer pricing and related income tax disputes with Indian tax authorities. The aggregate amount demanded by Indian tax authorities (net of advance payments) as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025 is $39,525 and $42,205, respectively. The Company has made payments and/or provided bank guarantees against these demands in the amounts of $7,428 and $7,684, as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. The Company believes that its positions will more likely than not be sustained upon final examination by the tax authorities, and accordingly has not accrued any liabilities with respect to these matters in its consolidated financial statements.

Pursuant to reviewing the Company's annual VAT and service tax filings, the Indian tax authorities raised aggregate demands for tax years 2015 and 2017, in the amounts of $4,863 and $5,186, as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. The Company has made payments and/or provided bank guarantees against these demands in the amounts of $4,773 and $5,090, as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. The Company has filed appeals against these matters and believes that it is more likely than not that upon final examination its position will be sustained based on technical merits.

The Indian Goods and Services Tax ("GST") authorities rejected the Company's refund claims in the amounts of $5,119 and $5,494 as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively. The Company has filed appeals against these matters and believes that it is more likely than not that upon final examination its position will be sustained based on its technical merits. Accordingly, no allowances were recorded against these GST receivables as of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, respectively.

Some of the Company's subsidiaries in India have undergone assessments with the statutory authority with respect to defined contribution plan. Except for some components of the assessments for which the Company has recognized a provision in the unaudited consolidated financial statements, the Company believes that the amount demanded by such authority is not a meaningful indicator of the potential liabilities of the Company, and that these matters are without merit. The Company is defending against the assessment orders and in two cases, has instituted an appeal against the order before the relevant tribunal while also making a payment under protest of the amount demanded. As of the reporting date, the Company's management does not believe that the ultimate assessments in any of these matters will have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. The Company will continue to monitor and evaluate its position based on future events and developments on these matters.

From time to time, the Company, its subsidiaries, and/or their present officers or directors, may be or have been, named as a defendant in litigation matters, including employment-related claims. The plaintiffs in those cases seek damages, including, where applicable, compensatory damages, punitive damages and attorney's fees. With respect to pending litigation matters as of the reporting date, the Company believes that the damages claimed are without merit, and the Company intends to vigorously defend them. The Company will continuously monitor developments on these matters to assess potential impacts to the financial statements.

The outcomes of legal actions are unpredictable and subject to significant uncertainties, and thus it is inherently difficult to determine the likelihood of the Company incurring a material loss or quantification of any such loss. With respect to certain pending litigation matters as of the reporting date, the Company has made provisions based on information currently available, including its evaluation of the facts underlying each matter and legal counsel's advice on the estimated losses or range of reasonably possible losses. Based on the Company's assessment, including the availability of insurance recoveries, the Company's management does not believe that currently pending litigation, individually or in aggregate, will have a material adverse effect on the Company's consolidated financial condition, results of operations or cash flows. The Company will continuously monitor these matters to assess potential impacts to the financial statements.

Across all regions in which we operate, we combine deep domain experience with our data and AI expertise to help clients innovate, enhance operational agility, adapt to changing market demands, and drive better business transformation.

Pricing: We charge for our services using various pricing models like time-and-material pricing, full-time-equivalent pricing, transaction-based pricing, outcome-based pricing, subscription-based pricing and other alternative or emerging pricing models. Outcome-based pricing arrangements are an example of a non-linear pricing model where our revenues from platforms and solutions and the services we provide are compensated based on our clients' usage or savings rather than the efforts we deploy to provide these services. We continue to observe a shift in the industry pricing models toward transaction-based pricing, outcome-based pricing and other alternative pricing models. We believe this trend will continue and we use such alternative pricing models with some of our current clients and are seeking to move certain other clients from a full-time-equivalent pricing model to a transaction-based or other alternative pricing model. These alternative pricing models place the focus on operating efficiency in order to maintain or improve our gross margins.

As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, we had $332.7 million and $328.4 million, respectively, in cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments, of which $293.0 million and $285.8 million, respectively, is located in foreign jurisdictions that upon distribution may be subject to withholding and other taxes. We periodically evaluate opportunities to distribute cash among our group entities to fund our operations, expand our business and make strategic acquisitions in the United States and other geographies. As and when we decide to distribute, we may have to accrue additional taxes in accordance with local tax laws, rules and regulations in the relevant foreign jurisdictions. During the nine months ended September 30, 2026, some of our foreign subsidiaries repatriated $13.0 million to the United States.

Operating Activities: Net cash provided by operating activities was $208.8 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to $233.3 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025, reflecting higher working capital needs, partially offset by higher cash earnings. The major drivers contributing to the decrease of $24.5 million year-over-year included the following:

- Changes in accounts receivable, including advance billings, contributed lower cash flow of $54.6 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025, driven by revenue growth and higher days sales outstanding. Our days sales outstanding were 67 days as of September 30, 2026, compared to 63 days as of September 30, 2025.
- Increase in cash earnings, including adjustments for non-cash and other items contributed higher cash flow of $27.4 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025. These adjustments include unrealized foreign currency exchange (gain)/loss, net, fair value mark-to-market on investments, stock-based employee compensation, depreciation and amortization of long-lived assets and intangibles acquired in business combinations, among others.
- Changes in other assets, accounts payables including other liabilities contributed to a lower cash payout of $2.7 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

Investing Activities: Net cash used for investing activities was $198.7 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to net cash used of $82.6 million for the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The increase of $116.1 million was primarily due to net cash used for business acquisition of $153.8 million, and higher cash paid for capital expenditures, including investments in infrastructure, technology assets and digital capabilities of $2.5 million, partially offset by lower purchases of investments of $40.2 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

Financing Activities: Net cash provided by financing activities was $1.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to net cash used of $147.9 million during the nine months ended September 30, 2025. The increase of $149.8 million was primarily due to higher net proceeds from borrowings of $144.0 million, and lower purchases of treasury stock of $6.5 million under our share repurchase programs during the nine months ended September 30, 2026, compared to the nine months ended September 30, 2025.

We expect to use cash from operating activities to maintain and expand our business by making investments, primarily related to building new digital capabilities, including AI and purchase telecommunications equipment and computer hardware and software in connection with managing client operations.

We incurred $44.1 million of capital expenditure during the nine months ended September 30, 2026. We expect to incur total capital expenditures of between $58.0 million and $62.0 million in fiscal 2026, primarily to meet our growth requirements, including additions to our facilities and infrastructure, as well as investments in technology applications, product development, and other digital technologies.

In connection with any tax assessment orders that have been issued, or may be issued against us or our subsidiaries, we may be required to deposit additional amounts with the relevant authorities with respect to such assessment orders. See Note 25 - Commitments and Contingencies to our unaudited consolidated financial statements under Part I, Item 1, “Financial Statements” for further information.

We believe that our existing cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments and sources of liquidity will be sufficient to satisfy our cash requirements over the next twelve months. Our future cash requirements will depend on many factors, including our rate of revenue growth, our investments in strategic initiatives like acquisition of complementary businesses, capital expenditures and continued stock repurchases, including accelerated stock repurchases under our board-authorized stock repurchase program, which may require the use of significant cash resources and/or additional financing. We anticipate that we will continue to rely upon cash from operating activities to finance most of our above-mentioned requirements, although if we have significant growth through acquisitions, we may need to obtain additional financing.

In the ordinary course of business, we enter into contracts and commitments that obligate us to make payments in the future. These obligations include borrowings, including interest obligations, purchase commitments, operating and finance lease commitments, employee benefit payments under gratuity plans, payments for contingent consideration and uncertain tax positions. See Note 16 - Fair Value Measurements - Fair Value of Contingent Consideration, Note 18 - Borrowings, Note 20 - Employee Benefit Plans, Note 21 - Leases, Note 22 - Income Taxes and Note 25 - Commitments and Contingencies to our unaudited consolidated financial statements under Part I, Item 1, “Financial Statements” for further information on material cash requirements from known contractual and other obligations.

In the ordinary course of business, we provide standby letters of credit to third parties primarily for facility leases. As of September 30, 2026 and December 31, 2025, we had outstanding letters of credit of $1.1 million and $1.6 million respectively, that were not recognized in our consolidated balance sheets. These are unlikely to have a current or future material effect on our financial condition, revenues or expenses, results of operations, liquidity, capital expenditures or capital resources. We had no other off-balance sheet arrangements or obligations.
