EXL Partners With GT Nexus to Provide Comprehensive Services to the Global Supply Chain Industry

NEW YORK, July 10, 2013 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- EXL (Nasdaq:EXLS), a leading business process solutions company, and GT Nexus, a leading provider of cloud-based supply chain solutions, formed a strategic partnership to provide platform-based business process solutions to the global transportation and logistics industry.

"We run the GT Nexus platform for one of our largest clients in the transportation and logistics industry, and we know first-hand the strong value it creates in giving companies real-time insight into their global supply chains," said Bill Bloom, President, Global Client Services, EXL. "Leveraging our proven experience to generate a combined software and services offering delivers a strong value proposition for global transportation and logistics firms."

"EXL has impressive experience managing complex operations for global transportation and logistics companies, including running GT Nexus. This partnership provides an attractive opportunity to showcase our expertise to other firms in the industry," said Greg Johnsen, CMO and co-founder of GT Nexus.

Utilizing EXL's operations management expertise and GT Nexus' proprietary supply chain platform, EXL and GT Nexus run several mission-critical functions for transportation and logistics companies, such as contract rate management, shipment data collection and benchmarking and freight statistics. These activities are critical to transportation and logistics companies' ability to ensure accurate delivery and an efficient cost structure.
